

BIO: IAN SCARBOROUGH

Winemaker, Co-Owner & Director

Ian Scarborough graduated from Roseworthy College in 1969 with a Diploma of Oenology. On graduation, Ian worked with Peter Lehmann at Saltrams from 1970–72. In 1973, he moved to the Hunter Valley as chief winemaker at Tullochs, as well as coordinating winemaking at Ryecroft in McLaren Vale. During the 1980s, Ian acted as a successful winemaker and wine consultant for several Hunter wineries. This provided him with an insight and knowledge that was well used in the formation of Scarborough Wine Co. During the 1980s and 1990s, Ian and Merralea Scarborough also devised and operated a successful contract equipment service to the Australian and North American Wine Industry.

Scarborough Wine Co. has been producing its unique style of wines since 1987 and is one of the few Hunter Valley only producers. Specialising in Chardonnay but also producing other traditional premium Hunter varieties, such as Semillon and Shiraz, Scarborough has established itself as one of the leading wine producers in the Hunter Valley.
